THE FRENCH REVOLUTION- Chain of Events

The Third Estate had little political power, were overtaxed, and on the verge of starvation.

⇩

The unfair voting system of the Estates General is abolished and replaced by the National Assembly.

⇩

The Three Estates make a new Constitution on the grounds of a Tennis Court without the approval of King Louis XVI.

⇩

Rioters storm the Bastille in Paris. People all over France take the side of the Revolution.

⇩

The Declaration of the Rights of man is signed.

⇩

Angry protestors march on Versailles and force Louis and Marie Antoinette to go to Paris.